

NTRA

NTRA Mike Ziegler

SAFETY & INTEGRITY
ALLIANCE

National Thoroughbred Racing Association

- 2010 Accreditations
 - Golden Gate Fields
 - Sunland Park – Provisional Accreditation (03/10)
 - Full Accreditation as of today
 - Canterbury Park
 - Finger Lakes – Inspected last week
 - 19 Tracks are now fully accredited

National Thoroughbred Racing Association

- Professional Education – October 2010
 - Trainers
 - Aftercare Organizations
 - Farriers/Foot and Hoof Care
 - Track Medical Directors
 - ROAP – Starters, Clerk of Scales, Paddock Judges
 - Veterinarians – Earned CE Credit

DVDs of All Seminars are available from NTRA

National Thoroughbred Racing Association

- 2010 Independent Monitor Report expected shortly after first of the year.
- Message from Governor Tommy Thompson

National Thoroughbred Racing Association

- 2011 Expectations
 - Tracks initially accredited in 2009 will be up for re-accreditation
 - New Code of Standards will be forthcoming
 - New Standards expected in human medical care
 - New Pricing Model
 - Tiered based on purses paid
 - Co-op program for NTRA member tracks

National Thoroughbred Racing Association

- Why should your track get accredited?
 - Track Perspective
 - Steve Koch – Vice President of Thoroughbred Racing Woodbine Entertainment Group

National Thoroughbred Racing Association

- Why should your track get accredited?
 - Fan Perspective
 - Tom Quigley – Publisher
Horseplayer Magazine

National Thoroughbred Racing Association

- Why should your track get accredited?
 - Horsemen Perspective
 - Tom Metzen, Sr.
Minnesota and Arizona HBPA

National Thoroughbred Racing Association

